Women's Wear.

A collection of garments whose merits of style and value will appeal forcibly.

WE NEVER buy a stock of duplicate goods at the opening of a season and rest on our oars, so to speak, till these goods are sold. That marks a difference between this store and others. Our representatives are constantly in the market picking up new ideas. Our stock is kept fresh and crisp and interesting in consequence.

New Gowns, Wraps, Calling and Shopping Suits Are to be Seen Here.

They represent the very latest and best ideas—some recent importations—others late New York productions and adaptations. We're counting on winning success by showing you what appeals to you most and quoting you the most moderate price possible on it.

New lines of Neckwear, Furs, Waists and Umbrellas.

The stock shows not only our ability to get hold of the best things, but our ability to choose what is best. This stock might well be called an edition de luxe of women's fashions. We welcome your inspection.

THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

BISHOP WILL BE MARRIED NEXT MONTH.

His Bride-Elect Is From Cincinnati and Highly Esteemed.

There—Notes.

Bishop Earl Cranston of Washington, D. C., one of the leading Methodists of the country, will be married November 13 in Cincinnati. Miss Lucie Mason Parker, well known in Cincinnati society, is his bride-elect.

Bishop Cranston is now attending a convention in North Carolina. For years he lived in Cincinnati, where he was in charge of the Methodist Book Concern, and afterward went to Portland, Ore. Miss Parker is near middle age and for a time was a teacher in an eastern college. She has marked literary ability. The wedding will take place at the Avondale home of William C. Heron, a relative. It will be the bishop's third marriage.

Miss Alice Roosevelt, it is said, is to be Mrs. E. H. Harriman's guest on his transcontinental flyer, which is to leave San Francisco on the arrival of the Pacific Mail steamer Sileria. Mr. Harriman expects to lower the record and to make the race to Chicago in fifty-six hours, six hours faster than the best record standing. Only fifteen hours will be needed, if all goes well, from Chicago to New York. The train, it is believed, will go by way of Washington to the latter city.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst is the owner of immense cattle ranches, one of which, the Hacienda Bavierra, is situated in Chihuahua, Mexico, about 125 miles south of Casas Grandes. Early this month she traveled in her private car to Temosachic, the nearest point on the railroad, and then drove to her big stock farm. Mrs. Hearst is well known to the people of the state, not only through her philanthropy and her interest in education, but because of her vast holdings, which give employment to hundreds. Besides Hacienda Bavierra she is largely interested in Mexican mines and oil wells.

Mr. William L. Carroll has returned to his residence, 1709 Massachusetts avenue, after spending the summer on the New England coast. His daughter, Miss Carroll, left New York last week with friends for a yachting trip to southern seas, from which she will return here during the early winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Willard will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary by a reception Monday, November 4, at their residence, 1333 K street, an occasion which will interest not only the hundreds and hundreds of their friends in this city, but elsewhere. The invitations are just out.

Senator William A. Clarke has just arrived from Italy and Paris, accompanied by Mrs. Clarke and their young daughter. Miss Pauline Morton, daughter of the former Secretary, is included in all the lists of prospective debutantes of the coming winter. Washington, however, can claim the honor of having given Miss "Polly" her first social winter. Her debut and the first snow of last December were kindred events. She made it a winter world for nearly twenty-four hours were simultaneous events, one long-to-be-remembered Saturday afternoon. The flowers sent to the city and the snow which melted in the drawing room out to the dining room and stretched around the walls, framed one of the most notable gatherings of the winter, and one which certainly ushered in for the special star of the day such a whirl of gaiety and attentions that could hardly be eclipsed by even a New York program.

Dr. and Mrs. Addinell Hewson of Philadelphia will introduce their daughter, Miss Katherine C. Hewson, to the city. She will be the same time will present Miss Katherine Clabaugh, daughter of Justice Clabaugh of this city, to Philadelphia society. Miss Clabaugh will spend the winter months with Dr. and Mrs. Hewson.

Senor Felipe Pardo, recently appointed minister to this country from Peru, is a brother of the president of Peru, and has been recently married. He and his bride are expected here about the 1st of December.

Mrs. Charles H. Baldwin, wife of Admiral Baldwin, has taken a house on Madison avenue, New York, for the winter, and will give a number of entertainments there for her daughter, Miss Edith Deacon.

Senator and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew have been among the members of the house party given for the week end by Mrs. Hamilton McK. Twombly at Florham, her country place, near Madison, N. J.

Mrs. Leiter and her son-in-law and daughter, the Earl and Countess of Suffolk, are in London. The latter, who has been in several times lately. The family group is living very quietly.

Gen. Morteza Kahn, minister plenipotentiary of Persia to the United States and to Mexico, has started from the latter country to this city, traveling by way of San Francisco and Seattle.

Lord Malden, son of the Earl of Essex, and heir to the title, whose stepmother was Miss Adele Grant of this city, chose an old-fashioned elopement, with, however, all the modern helps that a fast automobile and a special license for the purpose of his marriage last week. He drove down to Ayresbury in his motor, and at 5 o'clock the next morning was at the gates of the old manor house, where his bride was ready. The young lady, who was a Miss Freeman, and the belle of the county, crept out of the house and jumped into the motor. The motor was at the door by 6 o'clock, and later on a telegram broke the news to her parents.

Miss Agnes Edith Lohr from St. Paul, Minn., who has returned from a year's sojourn in Europe, is visiting her sister, Mrs. E. P. Schmitt, 1712 14th street northwest.

Mr. Herman Shirley and brother of Haymarket, Va., were Sunday visitors in the city. Last evening they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Polkinghorn and family of South Carolina avenue.

Miss Clara Donohoe of Capitol Hill has returned home after a six weeks' visit in England. She attended the house parties given by her classmates at Georgetown. A party of friends accompanied her as far as Niagara on her return.

Miss Annie T. Shughrue of this city and Mr. John Meagher, Jr., formerly of this city, but now a resident of Los Angeles, were married at St. Vincent's Catholic Church, Los Angeles, Thursday, October 12, 1905.

At the residence of the bride's parents, 31 Massachusetts avenue northeast Wednesday evening, October 18, Miss Ida Belle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Tooley, and Mr. Charles E. Ward, son of Capt. Farmer Ward of Baltimore county, Md., were married. The couple stood under a beautiful archway of many colored flowers, with Rev. H. M. Geren of the Anacostia Baptist Church officiating. Later an elegant collation was served to the eighty or more guests during the evening.

Among those present were the parents of the bride and groom, the groom's brothers and many of his railroad friends from Baltimore. Rev. Mr. Geren, Mr. and Mrs. Christian, Mrs. Bettis and the Misses Bettis, Mrs. Courtney and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Hall and Mrs. Jerry Mackriss and family.

Mrs. C. S. Myers has returned from a visit of several weeks to Harrisonburg, Va., and the valley of Virginia.

Mrs. A. R. Rosenberg and Miss Lucille Rosenberg of Harrisonburg, Va., are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Myers.

Last Friday the Children's Carnival Club of Northwest Washington held its first social at the home of the president, Miss Ethel King, 1729 K street northwest. Those present were Mrs. M. N. King, Mrs. Cole, Mrs. C. A. Holt, Mrs. C. F. King of Baltimore and Misses Bessie and Bertha

King and Mr. Highnam.

The club members who attended were the Misses Mildred Farrell, Ethel King, Irene Cole, Ruth Kendall, Julia Denham, Gladys Hereford, Marie Lucas and Misses Jackson Fair, Edwin Lucas, E. King and M. Denham.

The early part of the evening was spent in music, which was rendered by Misses Ethel King, M. Farrell, Irene Cole, and a vocal solo by Gladys Hereford. The potato race then took place, which was won by Miss Mildred Farrell in forty-five seconds. Various other games were played before the youngsters took their places in the beautifully decorated dining room.

After they participated in the supper, which was donated by the club and its friends, they proceeded to the next room for the donkey game.

The friends of Mr. Thomas M. Roland, for a number of years a resident of this city, where he has been in government employment, returned to Washington yesterday with a bride. Mr. Roland was married in Dorchester, Mass., Wednesday, October 18, last, to Miss Bessie V. Murphy of that place. The ceremony took place at St. Margaret's Catholic Church, Rev. Dr. Cudahy officiating. Mrs. Roland, who is an actress, wore a becoming gown of gray silk voile and picture hat. She was attended by her niece, Miss Catherine Murphy. Mr. Roland will reside at 34 Seaton place northwest, where they will be at home to their friends after November 15.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Carrie Elizabeth Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boyer of Woodstock, Va., to Mr. Harry P. Miller of this city. The ceremony will take place at Manassas, the home of the bride, Wednesday next.

Saturday, October 21, at 3 o'clock Miss Helen C. Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Willis of this city, and Mr. Lorel N. Morgan of Alexandria, Va., were married at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Greene of Calvary Baptist Church. During the winter Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will be at home to their friends at 1204 S street northwest.

CRIMINAL IDENTIFICATION.

Special Meeting of Board of Directors to Be Held Here.

A special meeting of the board of directors of the national bureau of criminal identification and Association of Police Chiefs will be held in Washington early next month to determine in what manner Congress will be approached for aid in carrying on the work of making a government bureau for criminal identification. The bureau now is sustained only by the subscription of about 100 cities. Major Richard Sykes, superintendent of the Washington police department and president of the national association, is drawing up the measure, which will be taken before Congress. Another subject to be taken up is the adoption of the system of identifying criminals by means of thumb impressions.

Opening of Y. M. C. A. Dining Room.

The new dining room of the Young Men's Christian Association will open this evening for the first time to members. No feature of the new edifice is going to be more popular than this. The room is beautifully furnished and decorated. The management states that the dining room feature is a privilege extended members and their accompanying friends, ladies and gentlemen. Miss Curtis is the manager, and has succeeded in surrounding herself with some very capable and excellent assistants.
